

It is declared by the author of the Trust as follows :-

Introduction :

"Nirman" Trust has been started for the empowerment of deprived section. A large section of people of India are suffering from social injustice and are socially, economically and educationally backward. It is said that children women and people of weaker sections are sinking down in the tank of frustration and are lamenting for basic needs. Although the constitution of India advocates equality among the citizen but practically disparity, Exploitation and backwardness exist. The main cause behind these evils are lack of awareness. Till Today people are still unaware of their right. In such circumstances it is primary duty of every right thinking person to render help to the Govt. and its machineries in the programmes meant for the empowerment of the deprived sections the orphans, destitutes, minority, socially, physically and mentally disabled women and children and general.

We the member of the Trust have started some such activities
